

From what I understand, the regulations now in effect concerning ownership of media in particular markets should not be rescinded. If anything, the FCC should regulate to ensure that monopolies don't exist in Americas's media markets. From what I have read, this deregulation is bad for our nation, and bad for democracy.

Don't rescind the regulations.